

Facility Safety

The grounds and facilities need to be appropriate and the equipment needs to be in good condition for the well-being and safety of the participants to reduce risk of injuries.

- a. Check and maintain the surface of the field to remove hazards
- b. Replace balls once their water-resistant qualities are lost
- c. Use appropriate sized balls for the age and gender of players